If time is worth money to you—you should be a subscriber to

THE DAILY TRAFFIC WORLD and TRAFFIC BULLETIN

Because the DAILY reduces to a minimum the valuable time between the taking of any action by the Commission, the Shipping Board, shippers or carriers, and the delivery of full information into your hands. That is why so many railroad and industrial traffic men are regular DAILY subscribers.

They know they can depend on the DAILY to bring them first news of the decisions and proposed reports in which they have a special interest. They know it will keep them in touch with the hearings in important cases—just as if they had their own representative at the Commission, or Shipping Board, or at meetings elsewhere, to keep them posted.

They know too, that when they want a copy of a decision or report, or detailed information about any rate matter or proceeding, they can write or wire our Special Service Department—and get it quickly.

The DAILY service is the busy traffic man's right hand man. It is the ideal combination of a prompt, all-inclusive news service and a complete group of personal, intelligent traffic services. Ask any subscriber, and he will tell you that it takes the place of an expert traffic assistant at a fraction of the expense.

The cost is reasonable because it is spread over a large number of organizations whose service requests are "grouped" to minimize expense.

Ask us to place your name on the DAILY mailing list for two weeks, without obligation, and to send you complete information about the special services which are included with every subscription.
